Why MAGNOLIA?

- Grants students and researchers across the state free access to thousands of reliable, academic peer-reviewed journals and curated, age-appropriate content not available through regular search engines.
- Provides access to research materials, a vital component in the education of Mississippi students and a significant part of established curriculum. It also serves as a great planning tool for teachers!
- Allows individuals to access MAGNOLIA resources from their home or office computer to assist with work related research.

Our Mission

To provide all Mississippians with free, online access to thousands of full-text articles and research that can assist them with their educational, professional, and life-long learning endeavors.

MAGNOLIA Training For Schools, Libraries, and Colleges

The Mississippi Library Commission's MAGNOLIA consultant can train your staff on using MAGNOLIA. Our staff is available to help you with any questions you may have about searches, functions, and programming.

Types of Training:

- In-person
- Virtual: Zoom or Microsoft Teams
- Webinars accessible at MAGNOLIA Library Resources on YouTube
@MAGNOLIALibraryResources

- Perform a basic or advanced search using EBSCOhost reference resources.
- Browse popular and academic journals and magazines.

- Citation tools for reference help are a part of most databases.
- Read-aloud features, adaptive reading levels, and translation tools available.

- Prepare for a test. LearningExpress Library has practice tests, eBooks, and study guides to help you achieve your goals.
- Save favorites and highly cited articles to folders to pick up where you left off!

Access to MAGNOLIA is provided through public libraries, public schools, and publicly funded academic community colleges and universities.
